the facts.

TOUR GUIDES VS TOUR OPERATORS

Guides:

1. Guides the tour and educates tourists about attractions in Belize
2. Assist with providing accurate information, to tourists and guests
3. Needs to work under a tour operator
4. No insurances required (tour operators cover guides, guests, and vehicles/vessels)

Operators:

1. Packages, markets, and execute tours
2. Can provide services to guests such as meals, lodging, and other related services
3. Are required to employ licensed tour guides
4. Must have valid insurance for tours, equipment, and passenger liability insurance

REMINDERS OF BTB's PROCESSES

- All tour operator licenses expire on December 31, each year.
- All tour operators who, have not submitted a renewal by 1st January each year will not appear on the BTB website and would therefore not be able to conduct tours.
- No tour operator will be allowed to work with an expired license.

REMINDERS OF BTB's PROCESSES

- BTB no longer accepts any physical application forms with supporting documents.
- BTB no longer accepts incomplete documents from any stakeholder.
- Tour Operator Application submissions should be sent to touropervisor@belizetourismboard.org. Please note that BTB is no longer using the email licensing@belizetourismboard.org.
- All payments are made via the bank and a copy of the payment receipt should be submitted with your application.
- The license can be picked up at the office or mailed out COD to the tour operator upon email request. Kindly provide a letter of authorization to anyone authorized to pick up your license.

REMINDERS OF BTB's PROCESSES

- All tour guides must display a valid tour guide license when conducting a tour.
- Tour guides must accompany the guests to sites/attractions and should adhere to the guest-to-guide ratio.
 - Land Tours – 1 to 15 guests Marine Tours – 1 to 8 guests Caves - 1 to 8 guests
- All tour guides must be employed under a tour operator.
- All tour operators and tour guides should be familiar with the Belize Tourism Board Act, Chapter 275, Tour Guide Regulations.
